

CAPITAL LAGS IN DRIVE FOR 'SALLY' FUNDS

Campaigners Sound Warning for Washingtonians To Start "Digging."

The nation's capital is still lagging behind in the Salvation Army drive for $100,000. Contributions are slowly coming in and those in charge of the campaign are beginning to feel uneasy about this city going over the top, it was announced last night.

It is felt by those in charge of the drive that the people here will have to loosen up their purse strings and contribute to the fund. A check for $250 was received from Levi P. Morton, former Cabinet officer, and one for $100 from former President Taft. The other amounts received are not encouraging, it is said by members of the executive committee.

Plan Ball Game.
Admiral Grant, commandant of the Washington Navy Yard, reported yesterday that every man at the yard is behind the drive and many funds are being planned to put their quota over the top.

A baseball game is planned for May 27 between the Naval Gun Factory and Walter Reed Hospital teams. It will take place at the American League Park and Lieut. Thomas, better known in athletic circles as "Freddie Welsh," and Billy Betts are to umpire the game. There will be two bands of music, one from the navy yard and the other composed of the boys from Walter Reed. The women (F) from the yard are to serve as ushers and sell programs. They will also sell doughnuts. The kind that won the war.

Mrs. Barnett Aids.
Mrs. George P. Barnett, wife of the commander of the Marines, spoke at the Belasco last night for the fund, and a large collection was taken up. Commissioner Morrison of the U. S. Civil Service Commission, announced yesterday that every employee of his department was behind the drive and they were going over the top with their quota.

"Dollars for doughnuts" is the slogan of 50 yeomen (F) from the Navy Department, who have given up a day's pay to sell the pungent "sinker" for the Salvation Army. These yeomenettes have already turned in $38.54, according to Jack Kelly, a former overseas man attached to the Twenty-sixth Division, and chairman of the Doughnut Committee. They are fired "a la Pershing," and will be on sale on street corners and in hotel lobbies, theaters, railroad stations and public buildings. Battle-scarred heroes now at Walter Reed Hospital have consented to sit at tables in the various banks throughout the city to collect pledges for the fund. These men will be brought down town in private automobiles today and placed in nearly every bank.

Accept Only Pledges.
It was made plain yesterday at the Salvation Army headquarters that the men would accept only pledges and not cash, which is prohibited by the War Department.

Will N. Cressy, of the team of Dime and Dime, now playing at Keith's, is pulling off stunts at the drive during his monologue at every performance. He is meeting with great success in this work and has so far turned in over $500.

The Shipping Board and Department of Interior employees are conducting a doughnut selling contest among the employees. The Shipping Board, under the direction of Himer E. Rogers, has collected $150. Homer Smith, in charge of the drive at the Interior Department, has not as yet made his report.

It was also announced that every permanent employee of the government has been pledged for $1 each, in addition to their contributions for doughnuts.

Speakers for Tonight.
Dr. Bennett, of the American Red Cross, also reported yesterday that the employees of this organization are back of the movement.

W. W. Bride, chairman of the speakers' committee, announced his program for tonight as follows: National Hon. Henry F. Macfarland; Belasco, Senator H. D. Myers; Montana; Keith's, Brig. Gen. William Mitchell, youngest general in the army; saw nearly two years at the front; Gayety, Maj. C. Fred Cook, from "overseas," and Board of Trade, Col. John G. Capers.

Guy Mason spoke to some school children, all under the eighth grade, yesterday at the Jefferson-Amidon School, Sixth and D streets southeast, and so strong was his appeal for funds that the "kiddies" dug down in their little pockets and handed over pennies and nickels that amounted to $25.

Tag Day Captains.
Mrs. Louis Brownlow, wife of the Commissioner of the District, and member of the executive committee in charge of women's organizations, announced yesterday the personnel of team captains, who are to take part in the "Tag Day" ceremonies tomorrow. Each captain will have about fifty girls, all prominent in society circles in this city. The names of the captains are as follows:

Mrs. Harwood Read, Mrs. Basil Manly, Mrs. Robert Watson, Mrs. J. Rozier Bikes, Mrs. Theodore Tiller, Mrs. Isaac Pearson, Mrs. Hal H. Smith, Mrs. C. H. Syme, Mrs. Earl Godwin, Mrs. Isaac Gans, Mrs. Joseph Solomon, Mrs. A. N. Prestia, Mrs. K. Cowling, Mrs. Melvin C. Bazen, Mrs. C. L. Henry, Mrs. J. T. McEneaney, Mrs. O. J. Rider, Mrs. J. P. Yoder, Miss Rosalie Waters, Miss Callahan, Miss Mildred Clark, Miss Della Heaven, Miss Mary Heyler, Mrs. M. O. Chance, Mrs. David Meade Lea and Mrs. R. Thomas West.

TODAY'S BEAUTY HELP

We find you can bring out the beauty of your hair to its very best advantage by washing it with canthrox. It makes a very simple, inexpensive shampoo, which cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly of all the dandruff, dirt and excess oil, leaving a wonderfully clean, wholesome feeling. After its use, you will find that the hair dries quickly and evenly, is never streaked in appearance and is always bright, soft and fluffy; so fluffy, in fact, that it looks more abundant than it is, and so soft that arranging it becomes a pleasure. Just use a teaspoonful of canthrox, which you can get from any good druggist, dissolve it in a cup of hot water; this makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head.—Adv.

There's No One in the World Like Me And If I Had a Name How Glad I'd Be

Would Be Glad with Name.
"Not a Bit Conceited," Says Zebra Is Jealous. Some Names Suggested.

"Lawdy, lawdy, I ain't never seen nothing like that in all this world." "He, he," snickered the Zebrass as the old colored man passed on to the next cage, shaking his head. "That ain't so funny, because there is only one of me in the world."

The Animal Editor agreed with the old colored man in his wonder and admiration of the Zebrass and stopped to ask the pretty little creature if he could take his picture for the Washington Herald.

Would Be Glad for Name.
"Why, certainly," consented the Zebrass. "I've heard about this naming contest you are running and I would be very glad to have the children of Washington select a name for me," and he walked over to the center of his yard and stood very still while the photographer took his picture.

Then he came back to the fence and resumed his conversation with the Animal Editor.

"It seems to me," he said, "that you ought to caution your readers to select a very unusual name for me, as I am the only Zebrass in the world. It's all very well to call common Zebrass like my cousin in the next cage 'Jerry' but that wouldn't do for me at all."

Not a Bit Conceited.
"Ever since I was a baby, in 1910," he continued, "people have been stopping at my cage and exclaiming over me. Of course, it might make some people conceited, but, as you may notice, it hasn't affected me that way in the slightest," and he tossed his dainty little head.

"Conceited," snorted the Zebrass, next door. "Why, he is the most stuck-up animal in this Zoo. Tells everyone that passes that he's the only Zebrass in the world, and marches around his cage like he owned the earth. Conceited, huh? Well, he walked into his house in disdain."

Says Zebra Is Jealous.
"Jealous," said the Zebrass. "Poor old dear, he has to be just a plain, ordinary Zebra all his life, and I suppose it does make him feel bad to have the only Zebrass in the world living in the next cage."

As the Animal Editor and the photographer walked away the Zebrass snorted after them that perhaps it would be a good thing to put "Only Zebrass in the World" over his picture when it is published in The Washington Herald.

Some of the names that Washington children have suggested for other animals are given:

ARTFUL DODGER HAS NO CHANCE

Put a few drops on that old touchy corn then lift it out without pain.

Ouch ! ! ! This kind of rough talk will be heard less here in town if people troubled with corns will follow the simple advice of this Cincinnati authority, who claims that a few drops of a drug called freezone when applied to a tender, aching corn stops soreness at once, and soon the corn dries up and lifts right out without pain. A delightful surprise awaits all who try this.

He says freezone is a sticky substance which dries immediately and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding tissues or skin. A quarter of an ounce of freezone, which will cost very little at any drug store, is said to be sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Millions of American women will welcome this announcement since the inauguration of the high heels.

Always ready—always fresh—always welcome. An appetizer at the beginning of the meal, making the best soup better, and the final touch of satisfaction when the cheese and coffee are served. Nothing can take the place of Uneeda Biscuit on the family table.

WANTS SUB BASE IN LOS ANGELES

Daniels Will Inspect Site Worth $3,000,000 Offered by City.

The government may establish a submarine base at the port of Los Angeles. Secretary of the Navy Daniels told a delegation that called upon him that he would visit Los Angeles in July or August for the purpose of looking over the proposed site tendered by the people of that city to the government.

Representative Henry Z. Osborne, of California, acted as spokesman for the delegation, which included representatives of the mayor, the city council and the Los Angeles chamber of commerce.

In behalf of the city they formally tendered a large tract of land valued at $3,000,000 to the department for a proposed submarine base or for any purpose that the Navy Department might elect.

Representative Osborne stated that in keeping with the government's policy of preparation in fortifying the seaboard, he urged that the port of Los Angeles be chosen as it offered one of the finest spots for a submarine base as was to be found anywhere on the entire Pacific Coast. Secretary Daniels told the committee that he was in hearty accord with their aspirations and would visit Los Angeles in July or August.

APPOINT FOLEY AS FOOD ENVOY ABROAD

Edward A. Foley, San Francisco, has been appointed by the Department of Agriculture as the first agricultural trade commissioner to work in foreign lands for the interests of American food producers. Foley, it is stated, will represent the Bureau of Markets in Great Britain where he will investigate food conditions, and study the marketing and distribution of farm products with a view to the development and improvement of foreign trade in American agricultural products. He will sail for Liverpool, May 24.

Would Save $10,000,000.

San Francisco, May 21.—President Wilson's request for a removal of the ban on wine and beer, if acted upon, will save California grape growers a loss of at least $10,000,000 this fall, according to H. P. Stoll, of the California Grape Protective Association.

PHYSICALLY FIT AT ANY AGE

It isn't age, it's careless living that puts men "down and out." Keep your internal organs in good condition and you will always be physically fit.

The kidneys are the most overworked organs in the human body. When they break down under the strain and the deadly uric acid accumulates and crystallizes look out! These sharp crystals tear and scratch the delicate urinary channels, causing excruciating pain and set up irritations which may cause premature degeneration and often do turn into deadly Bright's Disease.

Do not wait until the danger is upon you. At the first indication of trouble get a trial box of GOLD MEDAL Haarmen Oil Capsules, imported direct from Holland. They will give almost immediate relief. If for any cause they should not, your money will be refunded. But be sure to get GOLD MEDAL. None other is genuine. In sealed boxes three sizes.

Storks Get Stork Visit.

Chicago, May 21.—Mrs. George N. Stork here today reported the arrival of the stork with an eight-pound girl Stork.

ONCE WITH KAISER; HELD AS MURDERER

New York, May 21.—Richard von Krebs, alleged murderer, who escaped from the New Jersey insane asylum two years ago, boasted in Tombs Court today that he had been butler for Col. Roosevelt's father, Hietty Green, and former Senator James A. O'Gorman. Following his arraignment he was held for the New Jersey authorities.

In 1914, Krebs, it is alleged, shot Henry Rheit and wife on their farm

Security League Seeks Funds to Fight "Reds"

New York, May 21.—The National Security League has started a campaign for funds to further its campaign against bolshevism. "To defeat the doctrine of destruction the propaganda for America must be greater than the propaganda against America," the appeal for funds reads. "As a part of this work we are teaching 30,000 teachers in the best methods of teaching Americanism."

Painless Cause-Blushes.

Philadelphia, May 21.—Co-eds at the University of Pennsylvania are indignant over the "pains" rights of students. As "freshies" and "sophies" began ripping pants from each other, the women hastily left the scene. The fight was conducted "exactly as extensively advertised," the participants say.

Let Us Send You a "Swift Dollar" For a Pocket Piece It will interest you.

It shows where the money goes that Swift & Company takes in.

It shows that out of every dollar received by Swift & Company from the sale of meat and by-products in 1918—

1—Swift and Company paid for live animals - - - - 85.00 cents

2—Swift & Company paid out for labor, freight and other expenses - - - - 12.96 cents

3—Swift & Company had left a profit of only - - - - 2.04 cents

Total 100.00 cents

The 2.04 cents remaining as profit equals only a fraction of a cent per pound. It is too small to affect materially the price of live stock to the farmer or the price of meat to the consumer.
